THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. Re-Nomination of Abraham Lincoln.

Just as our paper is ready for the press, a special telegram announces the not unexpected intelligence of Mr. Lincoln's renomination on the third ballot. The news will be received with joy and gladness all over these loyal states, and wherever there is a pulse beating for liberty, equality and fraternity, it will quicken its action when the fact is learned that the emphatically honest man of the times, is named again for the highest position in the gift of the American people.

God bless Abraham Lincoln!

THE NEWS.

Our dispatches last night and this morning are chiefly occupied with the details of the proceedings of the National Union Convention now in session at Baltimore. Ex-Governor Dennison, of Ohio, has been chosen president of the convention with a large number of Vice Presidents. The peculiar political status of some of the states threatened, at the outset, to prove a bone of contention in the convention, on the admission of delegates, but those differences have been happily adjusted and the convention bids fair to be one of the shortest and most harmonious, as it is one of the largest and most respectable, political assemblages that ever convened in this country. The platform once adopted, all they have to do is to nominate Abraham Lincoln by acclamation, select a good man for Vice-President, and adjourn. It is said Mr. Hamlin turns up much stronger than was anticipated before the meeting of the convention.

The two armies now occupy a strip of country ten miles wide lying between the Pamunky and the upper waters of the Chickahominy. Grant's line stretches some seven miles in length, and Lee's is somewhat shorter on the north bank of the Chickahominy. The repeated attacks that have been made by both parties seem to indicate that both are fully prepared to give or accept a general engagement whenever it is really offered. Grant's army is ten miles from Richmond.

A dispatch from St. Louis says the guerrillas robbed the stores at Tunnell Hill, on the Mountain Railroad, last night, and are prowling about the railroad in considerable force.

Dispatches from Gen. Fiske's headquarters represent the return of the rebels from Price's army is causing much trouble in the Northwest. Citizens in some localities refuse to allow the rebels to return to their houses, and turn out and kill them in spite of the oath of amnesty.

Reinforcements are said to be reaching Grant in large numbers.

Our forenoon dispatches contain a paragraph like this: "The rebels advanced to attack several times and each time their line was cut to pieces in the attempt. Their losses must have been fearful, for our men shot them down at short range, while our batteries mowed them down in masses. Our loss is very light."

The afternoon dispatches give us some extracts from rebel papers which go to show that their readers are told similar stories, our loss in one instance, reaching 12,000 and theirs only a few dozen.

We suspect that the art of exaggeration, or, not to put too fine a point on it, the vulgar habit of lying, is carried to great perfection on both sides.

The rebel General Shelby is said to have captured Dardanelle, Ark., and to have taken 200 prisoners there.

The Richmond Whig of the 28th says: "We are glad to be able to state on the authority of his medical director, that Gen. Longstreet has so far recovered from the wound he received in the battle of the Wilderness, that he expects to take the field in about three weeks."

The General Assembly of Rhode Island has re-elected Henry B. Anthony to the U. S. Senate for six years, from March 5, 1865. The vote stood: Anthony 75; Geo. H. Brown, dem., 27; scattering, 1.

THE NEW YORK Times refers to an important feature of the campaign in Georgia concerning which little has been said. all the most valuable negro population of the Confederate States is believed to be now concentrated in Georgia and South Carolina. It is supposed that two millions of slaves have been sent to those two States to be far from Northern depredations and from all inducements to run away. These must represent 300,000 or 400,000 fighting men. When Sherman breaks into these communities, there will be an exodus into his lines from the whole country around, such as has not been seen since the beginning of the war. If he has the arms he can at once equip a vast army of fresh regiments who will do excellent service in guarding his immense lines of communications, leaving his veterans for distant and more important movements.

THE LEINSTER, Ireland Express, of May 18th, speaking of the emigration movement to America, says there is not the least doubt that the emigration panic is spreading through all parts of the country. From the district of that journal "the flight" seems increasing. Two thousand eight hundred and eighty-four persons left the small port of Sligo in five weeks for the United States.

THE POET Tennyson has sent to the St. Louis Sanitary Fair, in his own handwriting, a copy of his "Charge of the Light Brigade."

Gen. Grant before Richmond.

A Washington dispatch says it is believed there, in the best informed military circles, that when Gen. Grant announced his intention "to fight it out on this line, if it takes all Summer," that he meant what he said, and the vaporing of the McClellanites. therefore, that he will approach Richmond from the east, as McClellan, did are the sheerest nonsense. Gen. Grant will undoubtedly cover the line he has been fighting on, and thus keep the enemy from using those two important railroads; at the same time he may be expected to cover and use other lines of communication, by which his own supplies will be received, which he still can do by approaching Richmond from the north, and this position gives him a much better chance for a close investment of Richmond on the west side, where the James River Canal enters the city. Thus all the approaches to the city, except from the south, can be controlled by an investment from the north side, which was by no means the case when McClellan was before Richmond.

THE President has signed the Bank bill, and it is now a law. It limits the circulation but not the capital, to $300,000,000. No bank can be organized with a less capital than $100,000, and in cities of $5000 inhabitants the minimum is $200,000.—Registered bonds only are receivable as security for circulating notes. The circulation, deposits and excess of capital over circulation, are each taxed. Shares are subject to local taxation. Central redeeming points are named, at one of which all banks are required to redeem their notes.

MOBILE PAPERS received at New Orleans announce the death, in Georgia, on the 10th of May, of Thomas Butler King, one of the prominent men of the South, who was among the first and most active in the secession movement in Georgia. Mr. King was born in Hampden, Massachusetts, Aug. 26, 1804, so that he was nearly 60 years of age.

THE NEW ORLEANS Picayune has been seized by the civil authorities of that city, on charge of "aid and comfort to the enemy," based upon articles published before the capture of the city. The paper is allowed to continue its publication, and the case goes into the courts. It will probably be carried up to the Supreme Court.

THE PRINCE of Wales made his first speech in public on the 18th of May, at the seventy-fifth anniversary dinner of the Royal Literary Fund. The London papers say the Prince spoke well and exhibited promise of becoming a fine orator. His chief fault is that he hangs his head down while speaking.

THE ST. LOUIS Democrat, a paper opposed to Lincoln, and in the interest of the Missouri Radicals, refuses to endorse the proceedings of the Cleveland Convention. This is the most significant indication of the fate which awaits the nomination we have seen.

COLD HARBOR.—Cold Harbor is a point of considerable importance in the present position of the armies before Richmond. It is one of the principal roads leading from Richmond to White House via, New Bridge. It is simply a locality—no village—a cross-roads and a dilapidated old tavern. The roads passing here, however, are important—one leads to Richmond, seven miles distant; another to White House, sixteen miles distant; another to Old Church, five miles, from which a road leads to Hanovertown; another to Dispatch Station, near Bottom's Bridge, on the Richmond and York River Railroad. Cold Harbor is two miles east of Gaines' Mill, and it was really our extreme right, when the battle of that name was fought in 1862. The movement of Lee's force toward that point would seem to be with a view of depriving Grant of the use of an excellent road to his base at White House.

THE CHICAGO Post (War Democrat) thus sums up the case of the Fremont movement:

"On the whole we do not think the Fremont candidacy is of sufficent importance to the Republicans or Democrats to be worth the favor or disfavor of either party."

EX-PRESIDENT Buchanan has sent $50 and his autograph to the St. Louis Sanitary Fair. The old sinner may yet become a Union man before he dies—possibly.

INSURE WITH THE PHŒNIX INSURANCE COMPANY, HARTFORD.—Our mode of adjusting losses. Feeling it a special duty I owe to the Phœnix Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., I take great pleasure in expressing my thankfulness for the promptness and liberality they have exhibited in honorably adjusting and paying my claim, for loss sustained by the total destruction of my brick store building and stock of merchandise contained therein in Harrodsburg Ky., a few days since, and upon which I had an insurance in the PHŒNIX.

I am to-day in receipt of the amount of my claim $9,500 sixty days before the same was due, according to the terms of the policy, which is satisfactory evidence in my mind that the PHŒNIX is the Company to do business with.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

BALTIMORE, June 7.—On motion of E. A. Shaw, of Massachusetts, Mr. P. H. Duer, of New York, and E. W. Briggs, of California, were appointed temporary Secretarys. Rev. Mr. Riley was introduced by the chairman, and invoked the Divine blessing upon the proceedings of the convention.

On motion of Gen. Simon Cameron, a list of the States was called so as to furnish the secretary with a list of the names of delegates present, and as the states were called each delegation sent to the Secretary a roll containing the names of the delegates. Only States, not territories, were included in the call.

Mr. Stevens of Pa. moved that if there were any delegates here from states in secession, the names of such delegates be sent in to be submitted to the committee on credentials, but that such states be not called.

Mr. Lane of Kansas opposed the motion and urged that all the states and territories be called and that the credentials of all be handed in alike, the question to be decided by a committee on credentials.

Mr. Maynard, of Tenn., also eloquently urged that the claims of these suffering men in the states in rebellion should not be thus slighted. He was greeted with storms of applause,.

After considerable debate, a motion to call the names of all the states prevailed, including a motion of Mr. Lane, of Kansas, that the territories of Colorado, Nevada and Nebraska, as these territories were now organizing state governments under an enabling act of Congress, and would cast their votes as states at the next Presidential election. The other territories were then called and all were found to be represented.

On motion the rules of the House of Representatives were adopted as the rules of the Convention.

On motion of Mr. Lane, all the States except Missouri—which has two sets of delegates—were called upon to name one member, to comprise the committee on credentials. The following gentlemen were then named as the committee on credentials: B. W. Morris of Me., B. J. Cole, N. H., Edwin Hammond, Vt., J. Robinson, Mass, A. H. Fay, R. I., Augustus Brandagee, Ct., Preston King, N. Y., —— N. J., A. H. Reeder, Pa., E. G. Bradford, Del., N. H. Goldsboro, Md., Sam'l Lusk, Ky., G. V. Dorsey, O., Jesse J. Boone, Ind., J. Wilson Shaffer, Ill., Marsh Gettings, Mich., J. B. Cassoday, Wis., G. D. Wordler, Ia,, C. S. Butler, Minn., John Bidwell, Cal., Hiram Smith, Oregon, Wm. E. Stevenson, Western, Va., M. P. Insley, Kansas.

The States were again called to name a committee to select permanent officers for the Convention.

On motion the Convention next appointed in the same manner the committee on resolutions, as follows:

J. H. Drummond, Me.; David Ross, N. H.; E. P. Walton, Vt.; T. Wentworth, Mass.; E. Harris, R. I.; W. T. Miner, Conn.; H. J. Raymond, N. Y.; Chas. R. Will, N. J.; N. B. Lewry, Pa.; J. Moore, Del.; H. Lenox Bond, Md.; J. Speed, Ky.; A. T. Perry, Ohio; Wm. Dunn, Ind.; Elisha R. Perry, Ill.; C. J. Conger, Mich.; E. Salomon, Wis.; Wm. Stone, Iowa; Wm. Brustell, Minn.; E. Campbell, Cal.; T. H. Heard, Oregon; C. D. Hall, West. Va.; R. C. Wilder, Kansas.

The Convention adjourned at 8 o'clock until this evening.

EVENING SESSION.—The Convention reassembled at 7:30 P. M.

The committee on permanent organization made the following report of officers for the permanent organization:

President—Hon. Wm. Dennison, of O.

Vice Presidents—Nathan M. Farwell, Me., O. Stearns, N. H.; H. Stowell, Vt.; Moses Kimball, Mass; Joseph DeWolf Perry, R. I.; H. A. Grant, Conn.; Lyman Tremaine, N. Y.; W. A. Newell, N. J.; W. A. Ketchum, Pa.; Geo. L. Tebont, Ill.; —— Greene, Md.; J. E. Ecard, Ky.; D. Tod, Ohio; J. Beard, Ind.; J. N. Brown, Ill.; Chas. T. Graham, Mich.; J. F. Potter, Wis.; G. W. McCreany, Iowa; C. M. Darley, Minn.; R. Gardner, Cal.; Fred. Chairman, Oregon; C. D. Hubbard, West. Va.; G. W. Potter, Kansas.

Secretaries.—N. Morrill, Me; E. Spaulding, N. H; Horace Fairbanks, Vt; G. A. Shaw, Mass; J. M. Spencer, R. I; Sam Warner, Conn; W. R. Stewart, N. Y; C. Brinte, N. J; S. Stuart, Pa; Benjamin Burton, Del; L. Slaughter, Md; A. M. Hodges, Ky; J. C. Deven, O; John W. Ray, Ind; Lorenzo Drentons, Ill; W. R. Noyes, Mich; C. C. Sholes, Wis; J. Stoddard, Iowa; J. Taylor, Minn; Jas. Otis, Cal; J. W. Souther, Oregon; C. D. Hall, West Va; W. W. Lawerence, Kansas.

The report of the committee having been accepted with the most enthusiastic applause, the chairman appointed Senator Lane and G. A. Grow a committee to conduct Gov. Dennison to the chair. His appearance on the platform was greeted with vociferous applause.

As soon as quiet was obtained, Mr. Dennison addressed the convention. His remarks were frequently applauded.

At the suggestion of the chair, a committee on order of business was appointed.

Neither the committee on resolutions nor the committee on credentials being prepared to report, Mr. Stevens moved that the convention adjourn till to-morrow morning. It was announced that Parson Brownlow was in the Hall, and it was hoped an opportunity would be offered to hear that eminent representative of suffering Tenn. (Great applause.) Mr. Stevens withdrew his motion to adjourn, and on motion of Mr. Patterson of New York, the Parson made his appearance in the body of the House; he was greeted with deafening applause.

The convention and audience rose to their feet, and amid the waving of hats and handkerchiefs, the gallant Parson Brownlow excused himself from a speech on account of illness, but proceeded to say that he heard when he came to town that you had some doubts in your mind about the propriety of admitting the delegation from Tennessee, a State in rebellion. I hope you will pause, gentlemen, before you commit so rash an act as that, and thereby recognize secession. We don't recognize it in Tennessee. (Applause.) We deny that we have been out. (Applause.) We maintain that a minority first voted us out, and then a majority whipped the minority out of the State with bayonets and drove over a portion of the men to their ranks. But we are here to participate in your deliberations and toils. The delegation that our State sends up to you would scorn to go to the Chicago Convention. They would decline having anything to do with the Cleveland Convention. (Applause.) They are for the Baltimore Lincoln, arming-of-negro Convention. (Applause.) We are for the Convention of the party that is resolved to put down this wicked, this infernal rebellion, at all hazards and all cost. Our convention instructed us before we left home, to vote for Abraham Lincoln first, last and all the time. (Applause.)

I suggest to you that as an inducement not to them but, our delegation is, that we may take into our heads before the thing is over to present a candidate from that state in rebellion for the second office in the gift of the people. [Applause.] We have a man down there whom it has been my good luck and bad fortune to fight untiringly for the last twenty-five years—Andrew Johnson. [Applause.] For the first time in the providence of God three years ago we got together on the same platform, and now we are fighting those devils, Tom Walker and Jeff. Davis, side by side.

After a few more remarks Mr Brownlow closed, and on motion the Convention adjourned till Wednesday morning.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 5.—The rebels attacked the 2d and a portion of the 6th corps last evening, but were handsomely repulsed after a desperate struggle. They advanced to attack several times and each time their line was cut to pieces in the attempt. Their losses must have been fearful, for our men shot them down at short range, while our batteries mowed them down in masses. Our loss is very light.

A shell exploded among the members of Hancock's staff, one of whom lost a leg.

The trains are guarded all the way from the White House to the front principally by colored troops.

Our men are busily engaged digging toward the enemy, and the attack was made last night on one of our working parties.

NEW YORK, June 8—The Time's special says of the rebel attack: Sunday night the rebels make an assault just after dark in front of Smith's brigade, 2d corps. The atmosphere was a dense mist. Under cover of this fog, the enemy advanced in a strong line of battle and succeeded in reaching a position within pistol range of our works before being discovered by the advanced pickets. No sooner did the outpost give the alarm than one sheet of fire bleached forth from our ranks in front and on both flanks of the enemy. In about half an hour he fell back, leaving the ground covered with dead and wounded. Our loss small.

Brig. Gen. Barnard to-day took position as chief engineer of the army.

The Herald's correspondent says our line now runs nearly parallel to the Chickahominy in its main direction, but is exceedingly irregular throughout its entire length. The right is formed by Burnside's corps, the right center Wright's corps, and left by Hancock.

Another correspondent says a large number of re-inforcements arrived this evening, the 5th. Reinforcements outnumber our loss and more coming.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The Commercial's Washington Special says Gen. Grant's brother has returned from the army, bringing interesting intelligence.—[Why don't you let us know what it is?—EDS. GAZETTE.]

The Commercial says Mr. Chase is in the city in consultation with Bank officers, with a view to negotiate at once a temporary loan. The amount desired to borrow, is stated at $50,000,000. The Post says this announcement that the payment of the new loan will derange the loan market, and make money so stringent, as to produce a temporary panic, is not likely to be reduced.

At the New York sub-Treasury to-day, Mr. Chase in concert with Mr. Cisco and the leading financial institutions, is making such arrangements as will effectually prevent any such disastrous disturbance.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—In the Senate the bill to confirm the title to certain lands at Santa Barbara, Cal., to the Roman Catholic Church for educational purposes, was passed.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

CAIRO, May 7.—Steamer Luminary, No. 2—arrived with a moderate cargo of sugar and molasses. No news of importance. She reports the rebel battery still at Columbus, through not used against her. Marmaduke in person had been there the day previous to her passing.

Belle St. Louis, from Memphis 6th, arrived with 200 bales of cotton and 100 refugees.

Steamer Kate Hart from White river reports guerillas active in the neighborhood of Pine and Duval Bluffs. They had recently captured seven of our pickets and 200 government mules at the latter place.

The general opinion around Duval's Bluff is that Gen. Shelby had started on a raid into Missouri.

There is very little cotton coming in to Little Rock.

The military authorities at Cairo made a descent on a band of counterfeiters today, who had crossed the river from Missouri a few days since, capturing two and the others attempting to escape were fired on and one killed and another severely wounded.

LINCOLN RE-NOMINATED.

MILWAUKEE, June 8.—Old Abe was renominated by acclamation after the 3d ballot. W.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Secretary Chase is understood to have negotiated a loan of $50,000,000 with New York bonds. He is to draw money as needed and will give the banks six per cent. certificates of deposite to be used at the clearing house.

FROM THE SOUTH.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, 7th.—Richmond papers of June 3d have been received. The Sentinel speaks of the arrival of 850 Yankee prisoners, and says that on Friday, the 2d, assaults were made by Grant on the right of their line held by Kershaw, Hook and Breckinridge. All were repulsed with great slaughter. It puts our loss at from 10,000 to 12,000 with 1000 prisoners, their men escaping almost unharmed, but acknowledges that we gained a partial success against Breckinridge, but they subsequently recovered the ground. The Sentinel further says that Grant's object was to gain the strong position around Gaines' Mill, upon the road to Bottoms Bridge, and connect with Butler, but his object has been signally defeated.

REBEL RAID INTO KENTUCKY.

CINCINNATI, June 8.—A rebel force, supposed to be under command of John Morgan, made an entrance into eastern Kentucky a few days ago and this morning occupied the town of Mt. Sterling. They also destroyed bridges and tore up the tract of the Kentucky Central Railroad between Cynthiana and Paris, and cut the telegraph wires.

Trains coming north returned safely to Lexington. Another gang attacked a passenger train on the Louisville and Lexington railroad this forenoon near Smithfield, and two passenger cars and the baggage car were burned, the express car robbed, and the engine thrown off the track; none of the passengers hurt.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

BALTIMORE, June 8.—The Convention reassembled at 10 o'clock A. M. President Dennison in the Chair. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Gaddis of Ohio. Committee on order of business reported, and, after amendments was adopted, King of New York Chairman of Committee on credentials made a majority report that the Missouri radicals be admitted to seats without voting, and that South Carolina delegates be not admitted, and delegates from the District of Columbia be admitted to seats without votes. Minority made a report, which concurred in the exclusion of delegates from Virginia and the Territories of Colorado, Nevada and Nebraska from right of voting. That part of the majority reported, that related to unconditional admission was adopted.

Several amendments regarding the manner of admission of the Missouri delegations were rejected. The question was then re-carried on the adoption of a majority report. A call for a vote by states was made—vote resulting in the unanimous adoption of the majority report admitting the radical delegation from Missouri by 440 majority.

VOLUME 8. JANESVILLE, WIS., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1864. NUMBER 86.

Re-Nomination of Abraham Lincoln.

Just as our paper is ready for the press, a special telegram announces the not unexpected intelligence of Mr. Lincoln's renomination on the third ballot. The news will be received with joy and gladness all over these loyal states, and wherever there is a pulse beating for liberty, equality and fraternity, it will quicken its action when the fact is learned that the emphatically honest man of the times, is named again for the highest position in the gift of the American people.

God bless Abraham Lincoln!

THE NEWS.

Our dispatches last night and this morning are chiefly occupied with the details of the proceedings of the National Union Convention now in session at Baltimore. Ex-Governor Dennison, of Ohio, has been chosen president of the convention with a large number of Vice Presidents. The peculiar political status of some of the states threatened, at the outset, to prove a bone of contention in the convention, on the admission of delegates, but those differences have been happily adjusted and the convention bids fair to be one of the shortest and most harmonious, as it is one of the largest and most respectable, political assemblages that ever convened in this country. The platform once adopted, all they have to do is to nominate Abraham Lincoln by acclamation, select a good man for Vice-President, and adjourn. It is said Mr. Hamlin turns up much stronger than was anticipated before the meeting of the convention.

The two armies now occupy a strip of country ten miles wide lying between the Pamunky and the upper waters of the Chickahominy. Grant's line stretches some seven miles in length, and Lee's is somewhat shorter on the north bank of the Chickahominy. The repeated attacks that have been made by both parties seem to indicate that both are fully prepared to give or accept a general engagement whenever it is really offered. Grant's army is ten miles from Richmond.

A dispatch from St. Louis says the guerrillas robbed the stores at Tunnell Hill, on the Mountain Railroad, last night, and are prowling about the railroad in considerable force.

Dispatches from Gen. Fiske's headquarters represent that the return of the rebels from Price's army is causing much trouble in the Northwest. Citizens in some localities refuse to allow the rebels to return to their houses, and turn out and kill them in spite of the oath of amnesty.

Reinforcements are said to be reaching Grant in large numbers.

Our forenoon dispatches contain a paragraph like this: "The rebels advanced to attack several times and each time their line was cut to pieces in the attempt. Their losses must have been fearful, for our men shot them down at short range, while our batteries mowed them down in masses. Our loss is very light."

The afternoon dispatches give us some extracts from rebel papers which go to show that their readers are told similar stories, our loss in one instance, reaching 12,000 and theirs only a few dozen.

We suspect that the art of exaggeration, or, not to put too fine a point on it, the vulgar habit of lying, is carried to great perfection on both sides.

The rebel General Shelby is said to have captured Dardanelle, Ark., and to have taken 200 prisoners there.

The Richmond Whig of the 28th says: "We are glad to be able to state on the authority of his medical director, that Gen. Longstreet has so far recovered from the wound he received in the battle of the Wilderness, that he expects to take the field in about three weeks."

The General Assembly of Rhode Island has re-elected Henry B. Anthony to the U. S. Senate for six years, from March 5, 1865. The vote stood: Anthony 75; Geo. H. Brown, dem., 27; scattering, 1.

THE NEW YORK Times refers to an important feature of the campaign in Georgia concerning which little has been said. all the most valuable negro population of the Confederate States is believed to be now concentrated in Georgia and South Carolina. It is supposed that two millions of slaves have been sent to those two States to be far from Northern depredations and from all inducements to run away. These must represent 300,000 or 400,000 fighting men. When Sherman breaks into these communities, there will be an exodus into his lines from the whole country around, such as has not been seen since the beginning of the war. If he has the arms he can at once equip a vast army of fresh regiments who will do excellant service in guarding his immense lines of communications, leaving his veterans for distant and more important movements.

THE LEINSTER, Ireland Express, of May 18th, speaking of the emigration movement to America, says there is not the least doubt that the emigration panic is spreading through all parts of the country. From the district of that journal "the flight" seems increasing. Two thousand eight hundred and eighty-four persons left the small port of Sligo in five weeks for the United States.

THE POET Tennyson has sent to the St. Louis Sanitary Fair, in his own handwriting, a copy of his "Charge of the Light Brigade."

Gen. Grant before Richmond.

A Washington dispatch says it is believed there, in the best informed military circles, that when Gen. Grant announced his intention "to fight it out on this line, if it takes all Summer," that he meant what he said, and the vapoving of the McClellanites, therefore, that he will approach Richmond from the east, as McClellan, did are the sheerest nonsense. Gen. Grant will undoubtedly cover the line he has been fighting on, and thus keep the enemy from using those two important railroads; at the same time he may be expected to cover and use other lines of communication, by which his own supplies will be received, which he still can do by approaching Richmond from the north, and this position gives him a much better chance for a close investment of Richmond on the west side, where the James River Canal enters the city. Thus all the approaches to the city, except from the south, can be controlled by an investment from the north side, which was by no means the case when McClellan was before Richmond.

THE President has signed the Bank bill, and it is now a law. It limits the circulation but not the capital, to $300,000,000. No bank can be organized with a less capital than $100,000, and in cities of $5000 inhabitants the minimum is $200,000.—Registered bonds only are receivable as security for circulating notes. The circulation, deposits and excess of capital over circulation, are each taxed. Shares are subject to local taxation. Central redeeming points are named, at one of which all banks are requirad to redeem their notes.

MOBILE PAPERS received at New Orleans announce the death, in Georgia, on the 10th of May, of Thomas Butler King, one of the promiuent men of the South, who was among the first and most active in the secession movement in Georgia. Mr. King was born in Hampden, Massachusetts, Aug. 26, 1804, so that he was nearly 60 years of age.

THE NEW ORLEANS Picayune has been seized by the civil authorities of that city, on charge of "aid and comfort to the enemy," based upon articles published before the capture of the city. The paper is allowed to continue its publication, and the case goes into the courts. It will probably be carried up to the Supreme Court.

THE PRINCE of Wales made his first speech in public on the 18th of May, at the seventy-fifth anniversary dinner of the Royal Literary Fund. The London papers say the Prince spoke well and exhibited promise of becoming a fine orator. His chief fault is that he hangs his head down while speaking.

THE ST. LOUIS Democrat, a paper opposed to Lincoln, and in the interest of the Missouri Radicals, refuses to endorse the proceedings of the Cleveland Convention. This is the most significant indication of the fate which awaits the nomination we have seen.

COLD HARBOR.—Cold Harbor is a point of considerable importance in the present position of the armies before Richmond. It is one of the principal roads leading from Richmond to White House via, New Bridge. It is simply a locality—no village—a cross-roads and a dilapidated old tavern. The roads passing here, however, are important—one leads to Richmond, seven miles distant; another to White House, sixteen miles distant; another to Old Church, five miles, from which a road leads to Hanovertown; another to Dispatch Station, near Bottom's Bridge, on the Richmond and York River Railroad. Cold Harbor is two miles east of Gaines' Mill, and it was really our extreme right, when the battle of that name was fought in 1862. The movement of Lee's force toward that point would seem to be with a view of depriving Grant of the use of an excellent road to his base at White House.

THE CHICAGO Post (War Democrat) thus sums up the case of the Fremont movement:

"On the whole we do not think the Fremont candidacy is of sufficent importance to the Republicans or Democrats to be worth the favor or disfavor of either party."

EX-PRESIDENT Buchanan has sent $50 and his autograph to the St. Louis Sanitary Fair. The old sinner may yet become a Union man before he dies—possibly.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

BALTIMORE, June 7.—On motion of E. A. Shaw, of Masssachusetts, Mr. P. H. Duer, of New York, and E. W. Briggs, of California, were appointed temporary Secretarys. Rev. Mr. Riley was introduced by the chairman, and invoked the Divine blessing upon the proceedings of the convention.

On motion of Gen. Simon Cameron, a list of the States was called so as to furnish the secretary with a list of the names of delegates present, and as the states were called each delegation sent to the Secretary a roll containing the names of the delegates. Only States, not territories, were included in the call.

Mr. Stevens of Pa. moved that if there were any delegates here from states in secession, the names of such delegates be sent in to be submitted to the committee on credentials, but that such states be not called.

Mr. Lane of Kansas opposed the motion and urged that all the states and territories be called and that the credentials of all be handed in alike, the question to be decided by a committee on credentials.

Mr. Maynard, of Tenn., also eloquently urged that the claims of these suffering men in the states in rebellion should not be thus slighted. He was greeted with storms of applause,.

After considerable debate, a motion to call the names of all the states prevailed, including a motion of Mr. Lane, of Kansas, that the territories of Colorado, Nevada and Nebraska, as these territories were now organizing state governments under an enabling act of Congress, and would cast their votes as states at the next Presidential election. The other territories were then called and all were found to be represented.

On motion the rules of the House of Representatives were adopted as the rules of the Convention.

On motion of Mr. Lane, all the States except Missouri—which has two sets of delegates—were called upon to name one member, to comprise the committee on credentials. The following gentlemen were then named as the committee on credentials: B. W. Morris of Me., B. J. Cole, N. H., Edwin Hammond, Vt., J. Robinson, Mass, A. H. Fay, R. I., Augustus Brandagee, Ct., Preston King, N. Y., —— N. J., A. H. Reeder, Pa., E. G. Bradford, Del., N. H. Goldsboro, Md., Sam'l Lusk, Ky., G. V. Dorsey, O., Jesse J. Boone, Ind., J. Wilson Shaffer, Ill., Marsh Gettings, Mich., J. B. Cassoday, Wis., G. D. Wordler, Ia,, C. S. Butler, Minn., John Bidwell, Cal., Hiram Smith, Oregon, Wm. E. Stevenson, Western, Va., M. P. Insley, Kansas.

The States were again called to name a committee to select permanent officers for the Convention.

On motion the Convention next appointed in the same manner the committee on resolutions, as follows:

J. H. Drummond, Me.; David Ross, N. H.; E. P. Walton, Vt.; T. Wentworth, Mass.; E. Harris, R. I.; ——, N. Y. Miner, Conn.; H. J. Raymond, N. Y.; Chas. R. Will, N. J.; N. B. Lowry, Pa.; J. Moore, Del.; H. Lenox Bond, Md.; J. Speed, Ky.; A. T. Perry, Ohio; Wm. Dunn, Ind.; Elisha R. Perry, Ill.; C. J. Conger, Mich.; E. Salomon, Wis.; Wm. Stone, Iowa; Wm. Brustell, Minn.; E. Campbell, Cal.; T. H. Heard, Oregon; C. D. Hall, West. Va.; R. C. Wilder, Kansas.

The Convention adjourned at 8 o'clock until this evening.

EVENING SESSION.—The Convention reassembled at 7:30 P. M.

The committee on permanent organization made the following report of officers for the permanent organization:

President—Hon. Wm. Dennison, of O.

Vice Presidents—Nathan M. Farwell, Me., O. Stearns, N. H.; H. Stowell, Vt.; Moses Kimball, Mass; Joseph DeWolf Perry, R. I.; H. A. Grant, Conn.; Lyman Tremaine, N. Y.; W. A. Newell, N. J.; W. A. Ketchum, Pa.; Geo. L. Tebont, Ill.; —— Greene, Md.; J. E. Beard, Ky.; D. Tod, Ohio; J. Beard, Ind.; J. N. Brown, Ill.; Chas. T. Graham, Mich.; J. F. Potter, Wis.; G. W. McCreany, Iowa; C. M. Darley, Minn.; R. Gardner, Cal.; Fred. Chairman, Oregon; C. D. Hubbard, West. Va.; G. W. Potter, Kansas.

Secretaries.—N. Morrill, Me.; E. Spaulding, N. H.; Horace Fairbanks, Vt; G. A. Shaw, Mass; J. M. Spencer, R. I; Sam Warner, Conn; W. R. Stewart, N. Y; C. Brinte, N. J; S. Stuart, Pa; Benjamin Burton, Del; L. Slaughter, Md; A. M. Hodges, Ky; J. C. Deven, O; John W. Ray, Ind; Lorenzo Drentons, Ill; W. R. Noyes, Mich; C. C. Sholes, Wis; J. Stoddard, Iowa; J. Taylor, Minn; Jas. Otis, Cal; J. W. Souther, Oregon; G. D. Hall, West Va; W. W. Lawerence, Kansas.

The report of the committee having been accepted with the most enthusiastic applause, the chairman appointed Senator Lane and G. A. Grow a committee to conduct Gov. Dennison to the chair. His appearance on the platform was greeted with vociferous applause.

As soon as quiet was obtained, Mr. Dennion addressed the convention. His remarks were frequently applauded.

At the suggestion of the chair, a committee on order of business was appointed.

Neither the committee on resolutions nor the committee on credentials being prepared to report, Mr. Stevens moved that the convention adjourn till to-morrow morning. It was announced that Parson Brownlow was in the Hall, and it was hoped an opportunity would be offered to hear that eminent representative of suffering Tenn. (Great applause.) Mr. Stevens withdrew his motion to adjourn, and on motion of Mr. Patterson of New York, the Parson made his appearance in the body of the House; he was greeted with deafening applause.

The convention and audience rose to their feet, and amid the waving of hats and handkerchiefs, the gallant Parson Brownlow excused himself from a speech on account of illness, but proceeded to say that he heard when he came to town that you had some doubts in your mind about the propriety of admitting the delegation from Tennesse, a State in rebellion. I hope you will pause, gentlemen, before you commit so rash an act as that, and thereby recognize secession. We don't recognize it in Tennessee. (Applause.) We deny that we have been out. (Applause.) We maintain that a minority first voted us out, and then a majority whipped the minority out of the State with bayonets and drove over a portion of the men to their ranks. But we are here to participate in your deliberations and toils. The delegation that our State sends up to you would scorn to go to the Chicago Convention. They would decline having anything to do with the Cleveland Convention. (Applause.) They are for the Baltimore Lincoln, arming-of-negro Convention. (Applause.) We are for the Convention of the party that is resolved to put down this wicked, this infernal rebellion, at all hazards and all cost. Our convention instructed us before we left home, to vote for Abraham Lincoln first, last and all the time. (Applause.)

I suggest to you that as an inducement not to them but, our delegation is, that we may take into our heads before the thing is over to present a candidate from that state in rebellion for the second office in the gift of the people. [Applause.] We have a man down there whom it has been my good luck and bad fortune to fight untiringly for the last twenty-five years—Andrew Johnson. [Applause.] For the first time in the providence of God three years ago we got together on the same platform, and now we are fighting those devils, Tom Walker and Jeff. Davis, side by side.

After a few more remarks Mr Brownlow closed, and on motion the Convention adjourned till Wednesday morning.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 5.—The rebels attacked the 2d and a portion of the 5th corps last evening, but were handsomely repulsed after a desperate struggle. They advanced to attack several times and each time their line was cut to pieces in the attempt. Their losses must have been fearful, for our men shot them down at short range, while our batteries mowed them down in masses. Our loss is very light.

A shell exploded among the members of Hancock's staff, one of whom lost a leg.

The trains are guarded all the way from the White House to the front principally by colored troops.

Our men are busily engaged digging toward the enemy, and the attack was made last night on one of our working parties.

NEW YORK, June 8—The Time's special says of the rebel attack: Sunday night the rebels make an assault just after dark in front of Smith's brigade, 2d corps. The atmosphere was a dense mist. Under cover of this fog, the enemy advanced in a strong line of battle and succeeded in reaching a position within pistol range of our works before being discovered by the advanced pickets. No sooner did the outpost give the alarm than one sheet of fire bleached forth from our ranks in front and on both flanks of the enemy. In about half an hour he fell back, leaving the ground covered with dead and wounded. Our loss small.

Brig. Gen. Barnard to-day took position as chief engineer of the army.

The Herald's correspondent says our line now runs nearly parallel to the Chickahominy in its main direction, but is exceedingly irregular throughout its entire length. The right is formed by Burnside's corps, the right center Wright's corps, and left by Hancock.

Another correspondent says a large number of re-inforcements arrived this evening, the 5th. Reinforcements outnumber our loss and more coming.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The Commercial's Washington Special says Gen. Grant's brother has returned from the army, bringing interesting intelligence.—[Why don't you let us know what it is?—EDS. GAZETTE.]

The Commercial says Mr. Chase is in the city in consultation with Bank officers, with a view to negotiate at once a temporary loan. The amount desired to borrow, is stated at $50,000,000. The Post says this announcement that the payment of the new loan will derange the loan market, and make money so stringent, as to produce a temporary panic, is not likely to be reduced.

At the New York sub-Treasury to-day, Mr. Chase in concert with Mr. Cisco and the leading financial institutions, is making such arrangements as will effectually prevent any such disastrous disturbance.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—In the Senate the bill to confirm the title to certain lands at Santa Barbara, Cal., to the Roman Catholic Church for educational purposes, was passed.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

CAIRO, May 7.—Steamer Luminary, No. 2—arrived with a moderate cargo of sugar and molasses. No news of importance. She reports the rebel battery still at Columbus, through not used against her. Marmaduke in person had been there the day previous to her passing.

Belle St. Louis, from Memphis 6th, arrived with 200 bales of cotton and 100 refugees.

Steamer Kate Hart from White river reports guerillas active in the neighborhood of Pine and Duval Bluffs. They had recently captured seven of our pickets and 200 government mules at the latter place.

The general opinion around Duval's Bluff is that Gen. Shelby had started on a raid into Missouri.

There is very little cotton coming in to Little Rock.

The military authorities at Cairo made a descent on a band of counterfeiters today, who had crossed the river from Missouri a few days since, capturing two and the others attempting to escape were fired on and one killed and another severely wounded.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

4 O'clock P. M.

LINCOLN RE-NOMINATED.

MILWAUKEE, June 8.—Old Abe was renominated by acclamation after the 3d ballot. W.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Secretary Chase is understood to have negotiated a loan of $50,000,000 with New York bonds. He is to draw money as needed and will give the banks six per cent. certificates of deposite to be used at the clearing house.

FROM THE SOUTH.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, 7th.—Richmond papers of June 3d have been received. The Sentinel speaks of the arrival of 850 Yankee prisoners, and says that on Friday, the 2d, assaults were made by Grant on the right of their line held by Kershaw, Hook and Breckinridge. All were repulsed with great slaughter. It puts our loss at from 10,000 to 12,000 with 1000 prisoners, their men escaping almost unharmed, but acknowledges that we gained a partial success against Breckinridge, but they subsequently recovered the ground. The Sentinel further says that Grant's object was to gain the strong position around Gaines' Mill, upon the road to Bottoms Bridge, and connect with Butler, but his object has been signally defeated.

REBEL RAID INTO KENTUCKY.

CINCINNATI, June 8.—A rebel force, supposed to be under command of John Morgan, made an entrance into eastern Kentucky a few days ago and this morning occupied the town of Mt. Sterling. They also destroyed bridges and tore up the tract of the Kentucky Central Railroad between Cynthiana and Paris, and cut the telegraph wires.

Trains coming north returned safely to Lexington. Another gang attacked a passenger train on the Louisville and Lexington railroad this forenoon near Smithfield, and two passenger cars and the baggage car were burned, the express car robbed, and the engine thrown off the track; none of the passengers hurt.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

BALTIMORE, June 8.—The Convention reassembled at 10 o'clock A. M., President Dennison in the Chair. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Gaddis of Ohio. Committee on order of business reported, and, after amendments was adopted, King of New York Chairman of Committee on credentials made a majority report that the Missouri radicals be admitted to seats without voting, and that South Carolina delegates be not admitted, and delegates from the District of Columbia be admitted to seats without votes. Minority made a report, which concurred in the exclusion of delegates from Virginia and the Territories of Colorado, Nevada and Nebraska from right of voting. That part of the majority reported, that related to unconditional admission was adopted.

Several amendments regarding the manner of admission of the Missouri delegations were rejected. The question was then re-carried on the adoption of a majority report. A call for a vote by states was made—vote resulting in the unanimous adoption of the majority report admitting the radical delegation from Missouri by 440 majority.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1864.

An African Exodus.

Within a few days, says the Cincinnati Commercial, the negroes of Kentucky have become impressed with the idea that the road to freedom lies through military service, and there has been a stampede from the farms to the recruiting offices. The able-bodied blacks are turning out almost unanimously, and the women and children are disposed to go with the crowd. The consequence is, the railroads of the state have not the capacity to transport the negroes who are finding their way to the United States camps. The white people of Kentucky are taking this extraordinary commotion among the negroes very coolly, looking upon it as one of the phenomena of the times, and acquiescing in it as a part of the drift of destiny. Slave property has been recognised in Kentucky as very precarious in its nature, ever since the southern fanatics insisted that sectional difficulties should culminate in war. The negroes have not been in good working condition for some time, and their rush for the army is not as serious a matter for the agricultural interests of the state as might be expected. Then they are relieving the state of the draft, suddenly and forever, for enough of them are swarming to meet all probable calls in the future. If the government chooses to accept black men as soldiers, and the blacks want to go, and the whites don't, it is absurd of the whites to complain of the policy that practically exempts them, and receives an inferior article in full consideration of all demands. The uprising, if we may so call it, of the negroes of Kentucky, now in progress, is one of the most remarkable and significant events of the war.

General Grant on his own Situation.

A writer in the N. Y. Times tells the following good story of General Grant, narrated by a gentleman just from the front:

A visitor to the army called upon him, one morning, and found the General sitting in his tent smoking and talking to one of his staff officers. The stranger approached the chieftain and inquired of him as follows: "General, if you flank Lee and get between him and Richmond, will you not uncover Washington and leave it a prey to the enemy?" Gen. Grant, discharging a cloud of smoke from his mouth, indifferently replied, "Yes, I reckon so." The stranger, encouraged by a reply, proposed question number two: "General do you think Lee can detach sufficient force from his army to reinforce Beauregard and overwhelm Butler?" "Not a doubt of it," replied the General. Becoming fortified by his success, the stranger propounded question No. 3, as follows: "General, is there not danger that Johnston may come up and reinforce Lee, so that the latter will swing round and cut off your communications, and seize your supplies?" "Very likely," was the cool reply of the General, and he knocked the ashes from the end of his cigar. The stranger, horrified at the awful fate about to befall Gen. Grant and his army, made his exit, and hastened to Washington to communicate the news.

A LETTER to the St. Louis Republican, dated Resaca, Geo., May 27th, states that the rebel Gen. Wheeler made a descent upon one of our trains at Case Station, six miles below Kingston, on the evening of the 24th, and destroyed seventy wagons and captured a large number of mules, after which he sought for tall timber. Nearly all of the teamsters were robbed and set at liberty, but two or three commissioned officers were furnished with an escort and accompanied his command. The same letter states that there was a narrow escape from a terrible disaster at Resaca on the evening of the 24th. While a thunderstorm was raging, a stack of fixed ammunition, amounting to forty or fifty tons, were struck by lightning and the powder burned in several boxes of rifle cartriges; but, fortunately, it did not communicate with the vast heap of loaded shell. At the same time this occurred, the gun of one of the guard was struck, and the stock was knocked off in splinters and himself badly stunned.

CLOSE WORK.—A soldier in a Massachusetts Regiment writes home as follows:

I have been in five regular engagements since the 4th of May, and a dozen skirmishes, and we are under artillery fire all the time. We got a bad shelling this morning, and several got not only one but both legs knocked off. At the present writing, I am liable to have my head knocked off at any moment. We are lying behind breastworks, but the rebels have a flanking fire on us.

The 5th and 12th of May was the hardest fights the army ever saw. On the 12th we fought almost hand to hand from five o'clock in the morning till twelve at night. We took a line of rebel works by a charge at daylight, capturing all their cannon and 6,000 prisoners. The rebels made the most desperate fighting to regain the works, but it was no go. They lay on one side of the breastworks and we on the other—not more than five feet apart—rising and firing down at each other all day. One of the rebels threw a big rail into our regiment—one of our Sergeants threw it back. The dead on both sides of the work lay in piles.

"Bob," now called "Belmont Bob," is the body servant of Gen. McClernand, and at the battle of Belmont it is said of him that when the battle commenced he started for the boats. Reaching the banks, he dismounted and slid rapidly down, when an officer, seeing the action, called out, "Stop, you rascal, bring along the horse." Merely looking up as he waded to the plank through the mud, the darkey replied, "Can't boy, Colonel; major told me to save the most valuable property, and dis niggor's worf more'n a horse."

THOMAS HUGHES, author of "School Days at Rugby." "Tom Brown at Oxford," &c., is going to be elected to the British Parliament. He is a Liberal and will join Bright and Cobden as a friend of America and American principles.

The City of Richmond.

Richmond by the last census, had a population of 38,000 souls, but the great influx of civil and military officers and refugees from other parts of the State has probably raised it to a much higher figure. It is situated at the head of tide-water, at the lower falls of James River about 150 miles from its mouth. The city occupies a most picturesque situation, being built on Richmond and Shockoe hills, which are separated by Shockoe Creek, and surrounded by beautiful scenery. It is regularly laid out and well built, the streets which are lighted with gas, crossing each other at right angles.

On Shockoe Hill are the State Capitol and other public buildings. The Capitol is an imposing edifice, and contains in its central hall Houdon's celebrated statue of Washington. On the east of the square is the Govenor's mansion. Jeff. Davis's residence is a private mansion, which was purchased for him by the Rebel Government. The city has many fine public buildings, six banks, thirteen newspapers, and twenty-three churches. In one of the three Presbyterian churches Jeff. Davis worships.

The falls of James River affords immence water power, and there are very extensive factories, including four cotton and about fifty tobacco factories, flour mills, rolling mills, forges, furnaces, machine shops, &c., the latter of which, and particularly the Tredegar Iron Works, have been of immense service to the rebels in turning out ordnance and material of war. The annual exports of Richmond before the rebellion reached nearly $7,000,000, and its imports $750,000.

But since it had the honor of being the Rebel Capital its foreign commerce has been extinguished. Vessels or gunboats drawing ten feet can ascend to within a mile of the city at a place called the Rockets. Vessels of fifteen feet draft ascend to Warwick, three miles below. A canal has been built around the falls, and above them there is navigation for two hundred miles. The James River and Kanawha canal, intended to extend to Covington, is completed for two hundred miles.

Richmond has very extensive railroad communications, being the terminus of five roads—running to Fredricksburg and the Potomac, to West Point and the York River, Petersburg and Norfolk, to Danville, Va., to Jackson's River, by the Central Railroad—and from these the connections lead all through the Southern States. Opposite the city are the two towns of Spring Hill and Manchester.

Richmond was founded in 1742, became the capital of the State of Virginia in 1779, and in June, 1861, it was made the seat of Government of the "Confederate States of America," whose Congress assembled there on July 20. Its history since then is only too familiar to the country. Around the city are various hills, extending a great distance, on the most important of which fortifications were erected in the days of the "On to Richmond" cry.

Mr. Nasby has a Church Trial.

Church uv the New Dispensha.
March 10, 1864.

I hed a church trial yisterday, which wuz interestin, involvin ez it did a nice question. For the benefit uv uther branches uv the Dimikratic Zion I give the pints.

Bro. Siples wuz arraned before the church on a charge uv drinkin with a nigger—Bro. Podhammer bringing the charge. Bro. Jones wuz eggsamined.

Saw Bro. Siples go into the "Union ez it wuz" saloon, arm in arm with a nigger. Saw them go up to the bar and drink whisky together. Elder Pott, Dekon Kit and Bro. Smith, and also Bro. The wretchid man had nothing whatever to say and ez the case wuz clear, I wuz about to pronounce sentens uv excommunicashen agin him, when a thot struck me. 'Who paid for the licker?' askt I, looking joodeshil.

"The nigger, uv course," said brother Siples.

"Brethren," sed I, "this fact puts an entire new face on the matter. The nigger, my brethren, wuz made for the yoose uv the white man and fer no other purpuss. (Cussed be Knaun," "Servence obey yoor masters," et settry.) In the suthern Staits where the Dimocrisy rool, that is their normal condishen; but up here a mizable fannattacyism prevence us frum redoosin em to their rightful stait. Wat shed we do? "I played seven up fer the drink with him, and bete him. I wuz a holdin onto him."

"When you git a white cat, save him, save him.
When you git a black cat, shave him to the tall."

Case dismist. The church sustained the decision, and all uv em startid out immedintely in serch uv a nigger.

PETROLETH V. NASBY,
Paster uv sed Church, in charge.

Hooker's Strategy.—The latest method of capturing siege guns of which we have any account was achieved by Hooker in the recent operations near Dalton. Having failed to take a lunette defended by three guns by direct assault, his men being so near the earthworks that they were sheltered by them from the rebel sharpshooters, he kept his soldiers quiet until night, when the guns were taken by a "long pull and a strong pull." His pioneers, under cover of darkness, quietly dug out the earth beneath the guns, threw drag-ropes with hooks over them, and drew out the guns from the bulwarks which they had defended, leaving to the occupants of the lunette no other alternative than to surrender to the Federal troops, who swarmed in at the openings. This is certainly a new way to capture a battery—short, sharp and effective.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

BRITISH REFORMERS.—Another name—that of Mr. Gladstone—has been added to the list of British reformers. Mr G. made a great speech in Parliament recently, in which he boldly exposed the aristocracy and demanded an extension of the franchise. This speech has become the great sensation in England. It is endorsed by the workingmen throughout the kingdom, and Mr. Gladstone has become their champion. The liberal journals exult over this great stride towards more liberty for the people, and prophecy that Gladstone will be the next Premier of England, as the Government will have to favor the reform movement if it wishes to preserve its hold upon the masses.—The name of Gladstone bids fair to be among the brightest and most powerful in the galaxy of the English reform party. With Cobden, Bright, Mill, and Gladstone, the interests of the working men of England may be safely reposed.

A SHARP NEWSBOY.—A few nights ago in Hamilton, Canada West, a newsboy, who heard of the success of the proclamation forgery in New York, on finding himself left with a large number of papers on hand, began bawling the death of "Queen Victoria." The loyal Canadians became greatly excited and purchased the entire stock of the enterprising youth, who disappeared about the time that the papers did

The Kind of Insurance Worth Having!

On the morning of the 22d of February, the brick block, occupied by the "Lafayette Journal Co.," in Lafayette, Ind., was burned to the ground. The PHOENIX had a policy of $5,000 on the type, presses and machinery of the "Journal"—the proofs of the loss were handed in at the General Agency Office in Cincinnati on the 26th, and on the same day, Mr. Schuyler, representing the "Journal Co." received a draft for the full amount of his policy, as will be seen by the following receipt:

$5,000.

Magill, General Agent of said Company, the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, it being in full of all claims and demands for loss or damage under Policy No. 2,316, issued at the Lafayette, Ind., Agency of the said Company, the loss originating by destruction of Printing Stock, on Feb. 22d, 1864. WOOLEN FACTORY,

The subscriber at the Factory known as the

on the Monterey Water Power, has two sets of wide machinery in full operation, and is now putting in the third set, making it the

and about three times as large as the other Factories in the State.

Having a large establishment he is enabled to employ better workmen, do business to better advantage and with more promptness, and offer to customers better inducements for their patronage than can be done at any other mill in the State.

Those who have used the cloths made at this mill, both by myself and tenants for the past 12 years can bear witness to their superior quality. If other testimony were needed, the following from the dry goods article in the Chicago Tribune, of November 4th, 1863, might be added:

"The trade in woolen goods is now unusually brisk, and rarely if ever have we seen such a large and varied stock in market. It is noticeable also, that the best qualities are of domestic manufacture, and quite a large assortment of Western goods are offered. Some of the best plain cassimeres in market at present are manufactured—not in England nor France—nor even in the Eastern States—but in Wisconsin and in several portions of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The goods sent to our market from the "Stone Mills," Janesville, (as exhibited by their agents, Bowen Bros., of this city) deserve special mention because of their excellence in every particular, and because we consider it our duty as a journalist to aid and foster home manufactures."

Customers may rely upon having their work done promptly, and from June 16th to Sept. 16th at the following extremely low rates.

TERMS OF EXCHANGE:

For 1½ lbs. of wool a yard of Jeans, Tweed or Union Cassimere.
For 1¾ lbs. of wool a yard of Satinett or Flannel.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1864.

An African Exodus.

Within a few days, says the Cincinnati Commercial, the negroes of Kentucky have become impressed with the idea that the road to freedom lies through military service, and there has been a stampede from the farms to the recruiting offices. The able-bodied blacks are turning out almost unanimously, and the women and children are disposed to go with the crowd. The consequence is, the railroads of the state have not the capacity to transport the negroes who are finding their way to the United States camps. The white people of Kentucky are taking this extraordinary commotion among the negroes very coolly, looking upon it as one of the phenomena of the times, and acquiescing in it as a part of the drift of destiny. Slave property has been recognised in Kentucky as very precarious in its nature, ever since the southern fanatics insisted that sectional difficulties should culminate in war. The negroes have not been in good working condition for some time, and their rush for the army is not as serious a matter for the agricultural interests of the state as might be expected. Then they are relieving the state of the draft, suddenly and forever, for enough of them are swarming to meet all probable calls in the future. If the government chooses to accept black men as soldiers, and the blacks want to go, and the whites don't, it is absurd of the whites to complain of the policy that practically exempts them, and receives an inferior article in full consideration of all demands. The uprising, if we may so call it, of the negroes of Kentucky, now in progress, is one of the most remarkable and significant events of the war.

General Grant on his own Situation.

A writer in the N. Y. Times tells the following good story of General Grant, narrated by a gentleman just from the front:

A visitor to the army called upon him, one morning, and found the General sitting in his tent smoking and talking to one of his staff officers. The stranger approached the chieftain and inquired of him as follows: "General, if you flank Lee and get between him and Richmond, will you not uncover Washington and leave it a prey to the enemy?" Gen. Grant, discharging a cloud of smoke from his mouth, indifferently replied, "Yes, I reckon so." The stranger, encouraged by a reply, proposed question number two: "General do you think Lee can detach sufficient force from his army to reinforce Beauregard and overwhelm Butler?" "Not a doubt of it," replied the General. Becoming fortified by his success, the stranger propounded question No. 3, as follows: "General, is there not danger that Johnston may come up and reinforce Lee, so that the latter will swing round and cut off your communications, and seize your supplies?" "Very likely," was the cool reply of the General, and he knocked the ashes from the end of his cigar. The stranger, horrified at the awful fate about to befall Gen. Grant and his army, made his exit, and hastened to Washington to communicate the news.

A LETTER to the St. Louis Republican, dated Resaca, Geo., May 27th, states that the rebel Gen. Wheeler made a descent upon one of our trains at Case Station, six miles below Kingston, on the evening of the 24th, and destroyed seventy wagons and captured a large number of mules, after which he sought for tall timber. Nearly all of the teamsters were robbed and set at liberty, but two or three commissioned officers were furnished with an escort and accompanied his command. The same letter states that there was a narrow escape from a terrible disaster at Resaca on the evening of the 24th. While a thunderstorm was raging, a stack of fixed ammunition, amounting to forty or fifty tons, were struck by lightning and the powder burned in several boxes of rifle cartriges; but, fortunately, it did not communicate with the vast heap of loaded shell. At the same time this occurred, the gun of one of the guard was struck, and the stock was knocked off in splinters and himself badly stunned.

CLOSE WORK.—A soldier in a Massachusetts Regiment writes home as follows:

I have been in five regular engagements since the 4th of May, and a dozen skirmishes, and we are under artillery fire all the time. We got a bad shelling this morning, and several got not only one but both legs knocked off. At the present writing, I am liable to have my head knocked off at any moment. We are lying behind breastworks, but the rebels have a flanking fire on us.

The 5th and 12th of May was the hardest fights the army ever saw. On the 12th we fought almost hand to hand from five o'clock in the morning till twelve at night. We took a line of rebel works by a charge at daylight, capturing all their cannon and 5,000 prisoners. The rebels made the most desperate fighting to regain the works, but it was no go. They lay on one side of the breastworks and we on the other—not more than five feet apart—rising and firing down at each other all day. One of the rebels threw a big rail into our regiment—one of our Sergeants threw it back. The dead on both sides of the work lay in piles.

"Bob," now called "Belmont Bob," is the body servant of Gen. McClernand, and at the battle of Belmont it is said of him that when the battle commenced he started for the boats. Reaching the banks, he dismounted and slid rapidly down, when an officer, seeing the action, called out, "Stop, you rascal, bring along the horse." Merely looking up as he waded to the plank through the mud, the darkey replied, "Can't boy, Colonel; major told me to save the most valuable property, and dis nigger's worf more'n a horse."

THOMAS HUGHES, author of "School Days at Rugby," "Tom Brown at Oxford," &c., is going to be elected to the British Parliament. He is a Liberal and will join Bright and Cobden as a friend of America and American principles.

The City of Richmond.

Richmond by the last census, had a population of 38,000 souls, but the great influx of civil and military officers and refugees from other parts of the State has probably raised it to a much higher figure. It is situated at the head of tide-water, at the lower falls of James River about 150 miles from its mouth. The city occupies a most picturesque situation, being built on Richmond and Shockoe hills, which are separated by Shockoe Creek, and surrounded by beautiful scenery. It is regularly laid out and well built, the streets which are lighted with gas, crossing each other at right angles.

On Shockoe Hill are the State Capitol and other public buildings. The Capitol is an imposing edifice, and contains in its central hall Houden's celebrated statue of Washington. On the east of the square is the Govenor's mansion. Jeff. Davis's residence is a private mansion, which was purchased for him by the Rebel Government. The city has many fine public buildings, six banks, thirteen newspapers, and twenty-three churches. In one of the three Presbyterian churches Jeff. Davis worships.

The falls of James River affords] immence water power, and there are very extensive factories, including four cotton and about fifty tobacco factories, flour mills, rolling mills, forges, furnaces, machine shops, &c., the latter of which, and particularly the Tredegar Iron Works, have been of immense service to the rebels in turning out ordnance and material of war. The annual exports of Richmond before the rebellion reached nearly $7,000,000, and its imports $750,000.

But since it had the honor of being the Rebel Capital its foreign commerce has been extinguished. Vessels or gunboats drawing ten feet can ascend to within a mile of the city at a place called the Rockets. Vessels of fifteen feet draft ascend to Warwick, three miles below. A canal has been built around the falls, and above them there is navigation for two hundred miles. The James River and Kanawha canal, intended to extend to Covington, is completed for two hundred miles.

Richmond has very extensive railroad communications, being the terminus of five roads—running to Fredricksburg and the Potomac, to West Point and the York River, Petersburg and Norfolk, to Danville, Va., to Jackson's River, by the Central Railroad—and from these the connections lend all through the Southern States. Opposite the city are the two towns of Spring Hill and Manchester.

Richmond was founded in 1742, became the capital of the State of Virginia in 1779, and in June, 1861, it was made the seat of Government of the "Confederate States of America," whose Congress assembled there on July 20. Its history since then is only too familiar to the country. Around the city are various hills, extending a great distance, on the most important of which fortifications were erected in the days of the "On to Richmond" cry.

Mr. Nasby has a Church Trial.

Church uv the New Dispensashun,
March 30, 1864.

I hed a church trial yisterday, which wuz interestin, involvin ez it did a nice question. Fer the benefit uv uther branches uv the Dimikratic Zion I give the pints.

Bro. Siples wuz arraned before the church on a charge uv drinkin with a nigger—Bro. Podhammer bringing the charge. Bro. Jones wuz eggsamined.

Saw Bro. Siples go into the "Union ez it wuz" saloon, arm in arm with a nigger. Saw them go up to the bar and drink whisky together. Elder Pott, Dekon Kit and Bro. Smith, and also Bro. Brown, who keps the saloon, who wuz playing a quiet game uv seven-up, corroboratid Bro. Jones' testimony. They seed it. The wretchid man had nothing whatever to say in the case wuz clear, and ez the sentens uv excommunicashen agin him, when a thot struck me. 'Who paid for the licker?' askt I, looking joodeshil.

"The nigger, uv coarse," said brother Siples.

"Brethren," sed I, "this fact puts an entire new face on the matter. The nigger, my brethren, wuz made for the yoose uv the white man and fer no other purpuss. (Cussed be Kanun," "Servence obey yoor masters," et settry.) In the suthern Staits where the Dimocrisy rool, that is their normal condishen; but up here a mizable fannatacyism provence us frum redoosin em to their rightful stait. Wat shed we do? Planely, git all we kin out uv em. It wuz rite fer Bro. Siples to hev the nigger to pay for his whiskey. I wood do it myself. Ther iz but one dark feecher in it. Ef yoo walk arm in arm with another, it iz a confeshon uv friendship and equality. Wy did yoo do this, Bro. Siples?"

"I played seven up fer the drink with him, and bete him. I wuz a holdin onto him."

"When you give white cat, save him, save him.
When you git a black cat, shave him to the nub."

Case dismist. The church sustained the decision, and all uv em startid out immediately in seach uv a nigger.

Hooker's Strategy.—The latest method of capturing siege guns of which we have any account was achieved by Hooker in the recent operations near Dalton. Having failed to take a lunette defended by three guns by direct assault, his men being so near the earthworks that they were sheltered by them from the rebel sharpshooters, he kept his soldiers quiet until night, when the guns were taken by a "long pull and a strong pull." His pioneers, under cover of darkness, quietly dug out the earth beneath the guns, threw drag-ropes with hooks over them, and drew out the guns from the bulwarks which they had defended, leaving to the occupants of the lunette no other alternative than to surrender to the Federal troops, who swarmed in at the openings. This is certainly a new way to capture a battery—short, sharp and effective.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

BRITISH REFORMERS.—Another name—that of Mr. Gladstone—has been added to the list of British reformers. Mr G. made a great speech in Parliament recently, in which he boldly exposed the aristocracy and demanded an extension of the franchise. This speech has become the great sensation in England. It is endorsed by the workingmen throughout the kingdom, and Mr. Gladstone has become their champion. The liberal journals exult over this great stride towards more liberty for the people, and prophecy that Gladstone will be the next Premier of England, as the Government will have to favor the reform movement if it wishes to preserve its hold upon the masses.—The name of Gladstone bids fair to be among the brightest and most powerful in the galaxy of the English reform party. With Cobden, Bright, Mill, and Gladstone, the interests of the working men of England may be safely reposed.

A SHARP NEWSBOY.—A few nights ago in Hamilton, Canada West, a newsboy, who heard of the success of the proclamation forgery in New York, on finding himself left with a large number of papers on hand, began bawling the death of "Queen Victoria." The loyal Canadians became greatly excited and purchased the entire stock of the enterprising youth, who disappeared about the time that the papers did

WOOLEN FACTORY

Janesville, Wis.

The subscriber at the Factory known as the

"STONE MILLS,"

on the Monterey Water Power, has two sets of wide machinery in full operation, and is now putting in the third set, making it the

Largest Mill in the Northwest,

and about three times as large as the other Factories in the State.

Having a large establishment he is enabled to employ better workmen, do business to better advantage and with more promptness, and offer to customers better inducements for their patronage than can be done at any other mill in the State.

Those who have used the cloths made at this mill, both by myself and tenants for the past 12 years can bear witness to their superior quality. If other testimony were needed, the following from the dry goods article in the Chicago Tribune, of November 4th, 1863, might be added:

"The trade in woolen goods is now unusually brisk, and rarely if ever have we seen such a large and varied stock in market. It is noticeable also that the best qualities are of domestic manufacture, and quite a large assortment of Western goods are offered. Some of the best plain cassimeres in market at present are manufactured—not in England nor France—nor even in the Eastern States—but in Wisconsin and in several portions of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The goods sent to our market from the "Stone Mills," Janesville, (as exhibited by their agents, Bowen Bros., of this city,) deserve special mention because of their excellence in every particular, and because we consider it our duty even journalist to aid and foster home manufactures."

Customers may rely upon having their work done promptly, and from June 15th to Sept. 15th at the following extremely low rates.

TERMS OF EXCHANGE:

For 1½ lbs. of wool a yard of Jeans, Tweed or Union Cassimere.
For 1¾ lbs. of wool a yard of Satinett or Plannel.
For 2 lbs. of wool a yard of Cassimere, either plain or fancy.

PRICES FOR MANUFACTURING:

60 lbs or more of wool, from 15 to 25 cents per yard, according to the kind of cloth made.
Roll Carding, where the bundles are 15 lbs or more, 4 cents per lb.
Cloth Dressing of all kinds done from 10 to 20 cents per yard.
Persons living at a distance can send their wool by Railroad or by Express, with full directions, and have their wool or cloth promptly returned to them.
A good assortment of CLOTHS for sale 25 per cent lower than they can be bought at any other place in town. F. WHITAKER.

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned are having made at Beloit, Wis., one hundred of those Reapers known as the Cheap, or Webber Reaper!

Notwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Reapers, we are going to sell for 1864 at about the same prices as before. Our prices at the shop are $110 cash for single Reaper, for Reaper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work. They will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.
Those buying Reapers alone can have Mowers the next year or thereafter for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.
We do not deem it necessary to extol our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper in use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.
Please send in your orders early to be sure of a machine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to

Work Well in all Kinds of Grain!

The Reels will be different from last year. They will be the over hanging reel, and have six bats instead of four keeping the reel, holding the grain to the sickle steady.
They will be shipped to any depot in Wisconsin or Illinois. Ten per cent. will be added if sold on time. One half the 1st of September, 1864, the balance the 1st of September, 1865.
Those buying machines will confer a favor by giving this machine publicity in their respective neighborhoods. When material gets to its usual stage we intend to make it a ninety dollar machine, and should have done it but for the unprecedented high prices of everything to construct machines with.

The Reaper Shop at Afton!

will attend strictly to the repairing of the Webber Reaper. None others wanted. We are prepared to change from chain to belt, put on castor wheels upon short notice. Men will be on hand to repair promptly. Charges light as the cost of material will admit. We shall manufacture none at that place, consequently we will be prepared to repair. Work solicited. All orders should be directed to

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Pianos of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture can with Chickering's played an exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without being harsh, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmonious, and I do not hesitate to express a preference to the instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

ROCK CO., WISCONSIN, LANDS FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

Will be sold by Auction, on Thursday the 23d of June Next, in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-eight hundred and forty (3840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the villages of Footville, with the Beloit & Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best lands, in all respects, in Rock county, and this county, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin.

They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent, which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash.

There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two hundred (2,200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago.

A more eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.

For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. Dawson, No. 9 East 16th street, New York, who will be in Janesville ten days before the sale takes place; to J. J. R. Pease, Esq., counsellor at law, Janesville, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Footville. 458*my7dawOw

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned are having made at Beloit, Wis., one hundred of those Reapers known as the Cheap, or Webber Reaper!

Notwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Reapers, we are going to sell for 1864 at about the same prices as before. Our prices at the shop are $110 cash for single Reaper, for Reaper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty-Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work. They will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.

Those buying Reapers alone can have Mowers the next year or thereafter for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.

We do not deem it necessary to extol our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper in use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.

Please send in your orders early to be sure of a machine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to

Work Well in all Kinds of Grain!

The Reels will be different from last year. They will be the over hanging reel, and have six bats instead of four keeping the reel, holding the grain to the sickle steady.

They will be shipped to any depot in Wisconsin or Illinois. Ten per cent. will be added if sold on time. One half the 1st of September, 1864, the balance the 1st of September, 1865.

Those buying machines will confer a favor by giving this machine publicity in their respective neighborhoods. When material gets to its usual stage we intend to make it a ninety dollar machine, and should have done it but for the unprecedented high prices of everything to construct machines with.

The Reaper Shop at Afton!

will attend strictly to the repairing of the Webber Reaper. None others wanted. We are prepared to change from chain to belt, put on castor wheels upon short notice. Men will be on hand to repair promptly. Charges light as the cost of material will admit. We shall manufacture none at that place, consequently we will be prepared to repair. Work solicited. All orders should be directed to

COTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The tone is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Signed. L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forrest, and with the addition of a few herbs b Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced diseases.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

STOMACH BITTERS.

STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forrest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes, which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.
